

Camden County High School

The Governor's Office of Student Achievement (GOSA) recently announced their annual school awards and Camden County High School took home the platinum award for Greatest Gains schools. Only 187 schools throughout the state were awarded bronze through platinum medals in the areas of Greatest Gains and Highest Performing Schools. Camden County High School was one of only 28 schools throughout the state to earn the ultimate achievement of a platinum award. Schools that are selected as Greatest Gains schools have a three-year average of student growth in at least the 93rd
