

As a newly elected state officer for Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), Camden County High junior, Amber Parson, attended the Career and Technical Student Organization (CTSO) State Officer Training during the first week of June. After obtaining valuable leadership skills during her training at the Future Farmers of America and Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America Center (FFA-FCCLA Center) in Covington, Georgia with eight other Georgia CTSO state officer teams, Parson had the honor of visiting the Department of Education in downtown Atlanta. As pictured, Parson also met Richard Woods, Georgia's School Superintendent while at the Department of Education.
