

DJ's End Zone Memorial Scholarship

A $1,000 Memorial Scholarship to honor David Joyner's legacy by supporting students who aspire to become an educator, coach or a student athlete.

Overview

David Joyner was an educator in Camden County Schools for 30 years and lived in St. Marys, GA. Throughout his teaching career he quickly became known as Coach Joyner. He coached football for many years along with other sports. He was passionate about coaching and educating our future in Camden County.

Criteria

Deadline	03/31/2024
Eligibility	Graduating Camden County High School senior student that has been: Accepted for the 2024 fall college/university enrollment Pursuing a degree in the field of education/coaching OR Prospective student athlete.
Notification	The recipient will be notified in advance and announced at the Camden County High School Scholarship Night on May 21, 2024. The DJ's End Zone Memorial Scholarship for $1,000 will be paid directly to the selected institution for crediting to the recipient's account.
Documentation	Files to be attached in electronic format: Copy of college acceptance letter if you currently have it (will be required if selected). The scholarship will be forfeited if you fail to attend the fall semester following graduation. Copy of current high school transcript.
Application	To be completed in electronic format: https://form.jotform.com/240287181990159

Contact Information

Maribel Garcia

Scholarship Committee Chairperson

Djsendzonememorialscholarship@gmail.com

