

Ryan Bohner Memorial Scholarship

Ryan Bohner was a man of outstanding character who lived an exceptional life. He graduated in 2019 from Camden County High School with honors and as the STAR Student of his class. In high school, Ryan played baseball for Camden and for the Orlando Scorpions. He volunteered for Justin's Miracle League, participated in National Honors Society, Beta Club, FCA, and was very involved in Kingsland First Methodist Church. After graduation, Ryan attended North Carolina State University in Raleigh studying Mechanical Engineering. He held many leadership positions in Navy ROTC and his fraternity while at NC State. He embodied the qualities of leadership, service, humility, kindness, and patriotism. Ryan is remembered by his infectious smile, for his ability to turn strangers into friends and for turning friends into family.
