

Honor Code

Camden County High School recognizes the essential value of honesty in the school, work place and personal life of citizens. In that light, we are implementing the following Honor Code for the students at CCHS.

1. Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from cheating, including plagiarism, copying other students' work, and allowing other students access to personal work, unless allowed by teacher guidelines.
2. Every student shall be honor bound not to lie to school personnel.
3. Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from theft or willful destruction of property belonging to the school, faculty, staff, or other students.
4. Every student shall be honor bound to report immediately all violations of the Honor Code which come under his/her observation. Failure to do so shall be in violation of the Honor Code.
5. Every student shall pledge all graded assignments: "I have neither given nor received unauthorized assistance in the completion of this assignment, nor am I aware of others who have done so."
6. Every student found guilty of a violation of the Honor Code shall be subject to school disciplinary action.
